Mr. Chesser Still a Candidate.

Mr. James M. Chesser, announced candidate for the House of Representatives in the approaching democratic primary, but who failed to qualify as the law requires by paying his assessment, has issued the following circular letter

To the Democratic Voters of Putnam

County:

I announced my candidacy for the Legislature two weeks ago. I was not notified by the Executive Committee as to the time limit for payment of fee to have my name printed on the ticket, therefore when I came to pay the few mas told I was two days too late. I am, however, still in the race and will have to write my name on the tickets.

Will Meet in Palatka.

Dr. E. W. Warren, who with Mrs. Warren, spent most of last week in Jack-sonville, the doctor in attendance upon the meetings of the State Medical Associate iation, brings back word that the fall meeting of the board of state medical examiners will be held in Palatka. Dr.

Warren is a member of the board.

The doctor said that the state association could not meet in Palatka, for the reason that there was no local associa-tion of physicians in this city and county, it being a precedent long established that the annual meetings be held in only such cities where local physicians are organized.

The only paper read before the recen state association from this county was one on the subject of malaria by Dr. Graham E. Henson of Crescent City and which medical men have prono an able treatise on that subject.

Delegate to General Assembly.

At the meeting of the Presbytery of Florida last week, Mr. S. J. Barstow of this city was elected a commissioner to the General Assembly of the Presbyter ian church to convene in Lewisburg West Virginia, on May 19th. Mr. Barstow is a very modest man and has made no mention to the papers of the distinguished honor conferred upon him by the Presbyterians of Florida. That he is eminently worthy of the con-fidence of his church co-workers, every citizen of Palatka knows.
